DEATH OF HM QUEEN ELIZABETH II

The Supreme Council for England and Wales was deeply saddened to learn of the death of Her Majesty The Queen yesterday.

Her Majesty served as an unwavering example of the benign influence of faith, hope and charity, and the Council joins with all members of the Ancient and Accepted Rite within this jurisdiction in expressing its gratitude for her lifelong dedication, loyalty and service to the United Kingdom and the other Commonwealth Realms, and sends its sympathy and condolences to His Majesty The King, His Royal Highness The Duke of Kent 33°, our Grand Patron, and to the whole Royal Family at this time of great personal as well as public loss.

Formal letters of condolence will be sent by the Supreme Council on behalf of all members of the Order to HM The King and to HRH The Grand Patron shortly.
